

Silver Darlings

Poem by Andy Hulsamer (1970)

Put to music by Jim McClean

$\text{♩} = 160$

Oh herr-ings are har-vests that fish-er - men glean Where flash-es the sil-ver through deep o-ceans green And when herr-ing har-vests reach old Ab - er - deen They're known as the sil - ver dar - lings Sil-ver dar-lings on A - ber-deen quay, Brought by the fish-er - men home from the sea To the city that stands 'twixt the Don and the Dee, To the home of the Sil - ver

Dar - lings.